A Novel

Prayers to guide your journey of raising kids in a complicated world. In an age of distraction and overwhelm, finding the words to meaningfully pray for our children--and for our journey as parents--can feel impossible. Written with warmth and welcome, To Light Their Way gives voice to your prayers when words won't come. Filled with more than 100 modern liturgies, this book guides you into an intentional conversation with God for your children and the world they live in. From everyday struggles like helping your child find friends or thrive in school to larger issues like praying for a brighter world rooted in peace and truth, these pleas and petitions act as a gentle guide, reminding us that while our words may fail, God never does. At the core of To Light Their Way is the deepest of prayers: that our children will experience the love of God so deeply that their lives will be an outpouring of love that lights up the world.

This book is written with the purpose of transforming lives from darkness to light. The contents bring an awareness of the dark encounters you may experience on your life's journey.

Included are solutions to successfully overcome these temporary hindrances and walk boldly into the bright light of prosperity. Positive achievements will be your rewards when you persevere, substitute fear with faith and establish a strong alliance with God. There are recommendations for making wise choices in pursuit of an improved lifestyle. If there is a need to be consoled, these written words will bring inner peace and an optimistic outlook. The topics that are presented emphasize the importance of acquiring and implementing a positive mindset with trust and faith in God. This will enable you to arrive at your destination safely, and in a timely manner. Applying all the principles in this book to your daily life, your traveled path will always be bright.

Bright Spots: Motivation and Inspiration to Light Your Path in a Changing World is a collection of essays, written by 40 authors from around the world, in direct response to the events occurring in the year 2020. Each author shares a story of motivation, inspiration, and encouragement to help the reader feel less stressed, less over-whelmed, and more connected to their own inner-light source of inspiration. We are here. Right now. On purpose. For a reason. Although it may not feel all that pleasant, we have each been called to this adventure, at this particular time, for our own unique reasons. The future holds the promise of a new beginning, and we have been summoned to make a positive impact as we begin to mold a new earth. -We are the ones who hold the magic-the magic fairy sparkle dust-that is so desperately needed right now to rebuild. -We are the ones who are willing to extend a hand, share our treasures, and reach out to others in need. -We are the ones needed NOW-to not only offer compassion, comfort, and consolation, but to also initiate dialogue and direction. You, too, are the light-one who can shine and light the way for others. Yours is the light so desperately needed NOW-to rebuild communities, confidence, and broken dreams. It is time for you, too, to shine so that others may draw hope, strength, and courage from YOUR light and learn to let their own light shine.

Maybe you're stuck on your journey and need a good word to help you move forward. Or maybe you need an uplifting reminder that God holds your future in His loving hands. Higgs takes this collection of verses in Proverbs, and adds humor, honest stories, and personal examples for each. As you apply its ancient wisdom to your modern life, you'll discover how practical the Book of Proverbs still is.

Especially for women, this book contains hundreds of Bible verse organized into dozens of topics) that will help define your purpose in life, clarify and strengthen your relationship with others and with God, and provide encouragement and hope for the future.

Daily Light on The Daily Path is a classic by Samuel Bagster. Composed in the 18th century, then organized and published in 1875, this book offers readers a morning and evening reading for every day of the year. A classic daily devotional work with well over 700 distinct readings, Daily Light on The Daily Path offers Christian believers an immense compendium of reflection.

Designed to be read upon awakening and during evenings prior to bed, the book's reflections range from the deeds and words of Jesus Christ, to meditations upon the virtues and characteristics of the good Christian. With the chapters and verses appended at the conclusion, the reader may familiarize themselves with the relevant parts of the Bible. In contrast to many, more modern daily devotionals which contain assertions and ideas of their author, Bagster's text strictly adheres only the passages and stories of the Biblical scripture.

A Path to the Light A Spiritual Journey with Ascended Master Godfre Ray King This book contains 39 meaningful spiritual lessons by Ascended Master Godfre Ray King. He is best known to us as the messenger for the teachings of Master Saint Germain when he was last embodied as Guy Ballard. Now an Ascended Master himself, Godfre writes for those of us just beginning the spiritual path and searching for answers. He asks us to read his words with an open mind and heart and feel the truth within them. Through these words, he welcomes us all to the Path to the Light.

Why do you need this book? Because there are treasures in tradition. In stark contrast to the common belief that youth workers require nothing less than a light show, smoke machine, and sweaty punk-rock band to reach teenagers' souls, more and more youth have actually been moving toward depth and quiet—and away from fluff and noise. Creeds, candles, silence, and ancient spiritual practices are all gaining understanding and popularity among students who're passionately seeking otherworldly and mysterious fragrances. They're realizing that there are treasures in tradition. The Book of Uncommon Prayer is your tool for unearthing, dusting off, and tapping into these treasures—but in ways that are completely contemporary and, more importantly, completely relevant to students. It's personal. The prayers and worship services inside are written for youth ministry—for students and for youth workers! They tell the from-the-gut truth about what you and your kids face every day—and in language that won't leave anybody scratching their heads. It's practical. These tools are for just about any situation you can think of. Need a prayer for a lock-in? For family? For loving enemies? For final exams? How about a mind-blowing “Dumpster” Christmas service? An eye-opening service for All Hallows Eve? Or the most intense service for Good Friday you've ever experienced? They're all here—along with many other innovative vehicles for bringing your students into communion with God. It's unparalleled. This book is for all denominations. It doesn't matter if you're mainline or evangelical, Protestant or Catholic; The Book of Uncommon Prayer is geared for all teenagers and youth workers in Jesus' church! There's also an entire section of devotions and prayers written specifically for you, the youth worker, to renew and strengthen you when times are tough. Plus...we've included a bonus music CD in the back—Eucharist—an at-once moody and energetic, ancient-postmodern collection of songs straight from the “alternative worship” movement in the United Kingdom. Many services inside use songs from the Eucharist CD, and there's even an entire service that uses the CD from start to finish. Mysterious. Practical. Treasure-filled. (Yes, uncommon, too!) The Book of Uncommon Prayer is a rich source of God-revealing worship and a one-of-a-kind guide for personal renewal that youth workers, camp counselors, Sunday school teachers, adult volunteers (and even students) will love.

Devised to help teachers of primary science in schools. This title offers a two-year age band structure, correlation to the QCA Scheme of Work, and recommended teaching times. These essays, among the early writings of the great spiritual master Swami Muktananda, were first made available in the early 1970s to the ever increasing numbers of Westerners coming to spend time in his ashram in India. Until then, very few English texts could be found that discussed so openly the spontaneous spiritual awakening at the heart of the ancient and powerful path of Siddha Yoga meditation. Quoting generously from the poets and scriptures he loved, Swami Muktananda explores many subjects in these pages, including the nature of grace, the Guru-disciple relationship, the science of mantra, kundalini awakening, and the experience of devotion. All are viewed from the perspective of his own supreme attainment.

The Path To Light

A Play by Joy Harjo and a Circle of Responses

A Guide Through Grief, Pain and Loss

Advanced Practices of Yoga

Path of Light provides a fresh, superb, and penetrating overview of A Course in Miracles (ACIM), encompassing what it is, how it was written, what it teaches, and, most of all, how to live it. Veteran Course teacher, Robert Perry, has written this innovative exploration for the full spectrum of potential readers, from those who are simply curious about ACIM to those who are experienced students. Perry writes in a clear, straightforward fashion, and, like a storyteller, he uses simple words to relay the deep truth of the teachings of ACIM. More challenging than popular self-help summaries, yet more practical and engaging than a scholarly analysis, Path of Light will provide a new standard of reference on the most remarkable spiritual teaching originating in modern times. This is a skillful and elegant presentation from the warm heart and brilliant mind of one of the most respected teachers of A Course in Miracles. A softly illuminated portal that ushers us into the boundless room of light that is 'A Course in Miracles.'

(Hugh Prather)

Joy Harjo's play Wings of Night Sky, Wings of Morning Light is the centerpiece of this collection that includes essays and interviews concerning the roots and the reaches of contemporary Native Theater. Harjo blends storytelling, music, movement, and poetic language in Wings of Night Sky, Wings of Morning Light—a healing ceremony that chronicles the challenges young protagonist Redbird faces on her path to healing and self-determination. This text is accompanied by interviews with Native theater artists Rolland Meinholtz and Randy Reinholz, as well as an interview with Harjo, conducted by Page. The interviews highlight the lives and contributions of Meinholtz, a theater artist and educator who served as the drama instructor at the Institute of American Indian Arts from 1964–70 and a close mentor and friend to Harjo; and Reinholz, producing artistic director of Native Voices at the Autry, the nation's only Equity theater company dedicated exclusively to the development and production of new plays by Native American, First Nations, and Alaska Native playwrights. The new interview with Harjo focuses on her experiences working in theater. Essays on Harjo's work are provided by Mary Kathryn Nagle—an enrolled citizen of the Cherokee nation, playwright, and attorney who shares her insights on the legal and historical frameworks through which we can better understand the significance of Harjo's play; and Priscilla Page—writer, performer, and educator (of Wiyot heritage), who looks at indigenous feminism, jazz, and performance as influences on Harjo's theatrical work.

Madeleine was nine when she first realised that people could die; she was reading a book where the character lost a parent. Little did she know then that her own mother would die just three years later, changing her world forever. Over 20 years later, she can still remember the loneliness that surrounded her. It's what prompted her to write this book: a guide for coping with the loss of a loved one. Bringing together stories of loss, advice from doctors, counsellors, authors and others as well as Madeleine's own experience, this book offers practical tips and incredible comfort, telling readers everywhere: you are not alone, and you will find your way.

An urgent call for the political transformation needed to address the common causes of climate change, COVID-19, and racism. "An iconoclast of the best kind, Stan Cox has an all-too-rare commitment to following arguments wherever they lead, however politically dangerous that turns out to be."—Naomi Klein 2020 was a year defined by crisis. For decades, scientists have been sounding the alarm about the urgency of addressing climate change, but it took COVID-19 to demonstrate clearly that the future of human life on Earth is interconnected and at risk. While the virus quickly spread across the globe, extreme weather events compounded the suffering and economic catastrophe. In the U.S., public demonstrations of outrage over the murder of George Floyd expanded to include a growing awareness of the pandemic's disproportionate impact on communities of color. In cities around the world, people took to the streets to protest racial inequity in all of its forms. In The Path to a Livable Future, Stan Cox makes plain the connections between the multiple crises facing us today, and provides an inspired vision for how to resolve them. With a deeply informed, clear to-do list, Cox shows us how we can work together to address the climate emergency, white supremacy, and our vulnerability to future pandemics all at once. Our future depends on it. "In The Path to a Livable Future, Stan Cox shows us that the calamitous problems faced by all humanity, from pandemic to environmental devastation and settler colonialism, have a common root: the Western doctrine of looting and exploitation. Cox lays out a refreshingly grounded roadmap for the survival of all life on earth, based on up-to-date science, and anchored in the racial justice imperative. Global civilization is on a disastrous trajectory that can only be averted through holistic and bold pivots. The Path charts the way forward and gives us a reason to cling to hope."—Leah Penniman, co-founder of Soul Fire Farm, author of Farming While Black: Soul Fire Farm's Practical Guide to Liberation on the Land "Above all, he shows that a healthy, just, sustainable future is possible if we reduce our ecological footprint and share the earth's gifts equitably. For this we need to organize, resist, imagine, and forge another path together."—Vandana Shiva, author of Who Really Feeds the World?: The Failures of Agribusiness and the Promise of Agroecology "Stan Cox cuts through the fog of mediocrity and offers a clear, honest vision for how social movements can win a truly just and sustainable society. There are few books I would recommend as wholeheartedly as this one. Don't miss it."—Jason Hickel, author of Less is More: How Degrowth Will Save the World "As Cox shows in this devastating but clear-eyed assessment, the multiple existential crises of our modern world—from climate change to pandemics—are interrelated and can be traced back to centuries of colonial domination of land and people."—Dina Gilio-Whitaker, author of As Long As Grass Grows: The Indigenous Fight for Environmental Justice from Colonization to Standing Rock "Stan Cox stands in a class of his own. . . . The Path to a Livable Future is a testament to the fact that meaningful responses to the multifarious crises we face are unlikely to come—first and foremost—from traditional urban liberal strongholds."—Felix Marquardt, author of The New Nomads: How the Migration Revolution is Transforming our Lives for the Better
