An essential reference for all game designers, this 1938 classic is "a fascinating account of "man the player" and the contribution of play to civilization" (Harper's). In this classic evaluation of play that has become a "must-read" for those in game design, Dutch philosopher Johan Huizinga defines play as the central activity in flourishing societies. Like civilization, play requires structure and participants willing to create within limits. Starting with Plato, Huizinga traces the contribution of Homo Ludens, or "man the player" through Medieval Times, the Renaissance, and into our modern civilization. Huizinga defines play against a rich theoretical background, using cross-cultural examples from the humanities, business, and politics. Homo Ludens defines play for generations to come.

Sedikit sekali yang tahu, bahwa di Asia Tengah, di sebuah wilayah yang disebut dengan negeri di belakang sungai (ma wara' al-an-nahari) atau Transoxiana, terdapat jejak peninggalan peradaban Islam yang tak kalah hebatnya. Eksotisme dan kemegahan jejak peradaban Islam di Transoxiana, wilayah yang membentang di antara dua sungai besar ; Jayhoun (Amu Darya) dan Sayhoun (Syr Darya), sampai hari ini masih bisa dirasakan keberadaannya. Bersama aliran dua sungai tersebut, warisan peradaban Islam terus mengalir mewarnai wilayah itu, bahkan mewarnai Eropa. Kota-kota di wilayah ini, seperti Bukhara, Samarkand, Naisabur, Termidz, Nasaf, Baihaq, Nasa', Bairun, Khawarizm, dan lain-lain dinisbatkan pada para ulama-ulama terkenal di dunia. Kita mengenal para ulama dan ilmuwan seperti Abdullah Muhammad bin Ismail Al-Bukhari (Penulis kitab Shahih Al-Bukhari), Ibnu Sina (penulis buku Al-Qanun fi Ath-Thib), Muhammad bin Musa Al-Khawarizm (ilmuwan matematika), Mahmud bin Umar Az-Zamakhshari (penulis Sunan Ad-Darimi), Muslim bin Hajjaj Al-Qusyairi (penulis kitab Shahih Muslim), Abu Bakar bin Musa Al-Baihaqi (penulis kitab Dala'il An-Nubuwwah), dan lain-lain. Asia Tengah tak hanya menjadi mercusuar peradaban dan pusat keilmuan, namun juga menjadi Jalur Sutera perdagangan yang menggeliatkan ekonomi dunia. Karena itu buku ini karya warna, dengan berbagai aspek pembahasan yang seolah mengajak pembaca untuk menelusuri seluk beluk wilayah ini secara komprehensif. - Pustaka Al-Kautsar Publisher -

Translated from the original Arabic by William Alexander Greenhill.

The relationship between the Christian and Muslim worlds has been a long and tortuous one. Over the course of the centuries the balance of power has swung in pendulum fashion at times the initiative seems to have lain with the Muslim community, with the Christian world simply being compelled to react to developments outside itself, while at other points the opposite has been true and Muslims have found themselves having to respond to Christian challenges in different forms. Today Christians and Muslims comprise the world's two largest religious communities. Although they can coexist fairly peacefully, at times they still engage in violent confrontation, such as in the recent conflicts in Bosnia and the Sudan. This book investigates the history of the relationships between Christians and Muslims over the centuries, from their initial encounters in the medieval period, when the Muslims were the dominant group, through to the modern period, when the balance of power seems to have been reversed. This much-needed overview of the Christian-Muslim encounter places the emphasis on the context within which perceptions and attitudes were worked out and provides a depth of historical insight to the complexities of current Christian-Muslim interactions on different continents."

History of the Caliphs

One of the world's foremost commentators on religious affairs on the history (and destiny) of the world's most misunderstood religion. In the public mind, Islam is a religion of extremes: it is the world's fastest growing faith; more than three-quarters of the world's refugees are Islamic; it has produced government by authoritarian monarchies in Saudi Arabia and ultra-republicans in Iran. Whether we are reading about civil war in Algeria or Afghanistan, the struggle for the soul of Turkey, or political turmoil in Pakistan or Malaysia, the Islamic context permeates all these situations. Karen Armstrong's elegant and concise book traces how Islam grew from the other religions of the book, Judaism and Christianity; introduces us to the character of Muhammed; and demonstrates that for much of its history, the religion has been a force for enlightenment that promoted liberties for women and allowed the arts and sciences to flourish. ISLAM shows how this progressive legacy is today often set aside as the faith struggles to come to terms with the economic and political weakness of most of its believers and with the forces of modernity itself.

Is the history of the modern world the history of Europe? Or is it possible to situate the history of modernity as a world historical process apart from its origins? This text challenges adherents of Eurocentrism and multiculturalism to rethink the roles of Europe and Islamic civilization in world history.

Classical Islam

In a book written with the poignancy and beauty appropriate to its subject matter, the author opens by reminding us that the essence of a society is in a sense identical with its history. Classical Islam also serves as a reminder that in the case of Islam, despite its triumphs on the fields of battle, telling its history is the only way open to us to render that essence accessible and show it from all sides. The work offers a grand narrative of a faith that offers an interpretation of the world, a way of life, and a style of thinking, that goes far beyond institutional or political supports. The relevance of this historical perspective is beyond dispute. The period from 610 A.D. when Muhammad received his call until the conquest of Baghdad by the Mongols in 1258 is known as the classical period of Islam. This was the period of the great expansion of Islam both as a political structure and as a religious and intellectual community. It established the base for the development of the high Islamic civilization of North Africa, the Near East, Persia, and India, as well as further expansion of the Islamic religious and intellectual community throughout the world. This book presents an authoritative history of the period written by one of the world's leading experts on the subject. Classical Islam examines the relationships, both cultural and political, between the Islamic world and the Mediterranean countries and India and elaborates on the economic, social, and intellectual factors and forces that shaped the Muslim world and molded its interactions with infidels. The work is written in a clear and direct narrative form, emphasizing simultaneously the major intellectual trends and the political events and tendencies of the formative period in Islamic history that still resonates today.

This volume presents the transformation of the Greek-speaking Jewish community of Byzantine Constantinople into an Ottoman, ethnically diversified immigrant community. As the Ottomans influenced its cultural and social values, the community strived to preserve its boundaries with the surrounding society.

Sejarah peradaban Islam merupakan salah satu bidang kajian studi Islam yang banyak menarik perhatian para peneliti, baik dari kalangan muslim maupun nonmuslim. Sejarah adalah gambaran masa lalu tentang manusia dan sekitarnya sebagai makhluk sosial, yang disusun secara ilmiah dan lengkap, meliputi urutan fakta masa tersebut dengan tafsiran dan penjelasan yang memberi pengertian dan pemahaman tentang apa yang telah berlalu. Buku ini menguraikan tentang sejarah peradaban Islam secara umum; Jazirah Arab sebelum Islam dari berbagai aspeknya, Umayyah Timur dan Barat, Abbasiyah, dinasti-dinasti lain di dunia Islam, tiga dinasti besar; imperialisme Barat terhadap dunia Islam; Islam dan peradabannya di Nusantara dan Indonesia; serta kontribusi Islam terhadap ilmu pengetahuan dan filsafat. Maka diharapkan buku ini berfungsi sebagai sumber belajar bagi mahasiswa yang mengalami kesulitan membaca literature sejarah peradaban Islam dalam bahasa Arab dan bahasa Inggris.

The French social philosopher Pierre Bourdieu is now recognised as one of the major thinkers of the twentieth century. In a career of over fifty years, Bourdieu studied a wide range of topics: education, culture, art, politics, economics, literature, law, and philosophy. Throughout these studies, Bourdieu developed a highly specialised series of concepts that he referred to as his "thinking tools", which were used to uncover the workings of contemporary society. Pierre Bourdieu: Key Concepts highlights his most important concepts and examines them in detail. Each chapter deals with an individual concept and is written to be of immediate use to the student with little or no previous knowledge of Bourdieu. This new edition of the leading text is entirely revised and updated and includes new essays on Methodology, Politics and Social Space.

This work grew out of the famous course on Islamic civilization that Hodgson created and taught for many years at the University of Chicago. "This is a nonpareil work, not only because of its command of its subject but also because it demonstrates how, ideally, history should be written."—The New Yorker Volume 1, The Classical Age of Islam, analyzes the world before Islam, Muhammad's challenge, and the early Muslim state between 625 and 692. Hodgson then discusses the classical civilization of the High Caliphate. The volume also contains a general introduction to the complete work and a foreword by Reuben Smith, who, as Hodgson's colleague and friend, finished the Venture of Islam after the author's death and saw it through to publication.

The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam (1930) is Muhammad Iqbal's major philosophic work: a series of profound reflections on the perennial conflict among science, religion, and philosophy, culminating in new visions of the unity of human knowledge, of the human spirit, and of God. Iqbal's thought contributed significantly to the establishment of Pakistan, to the religious and political ideals of the Iranian Revolution, and to the survival of Muslim identity in parts of the former USSR. It now serves as new bridge between East and West and between Islam and the other Religions of the Book. With a new Introduction by Javed Majeed, this edition of The Reconstruction opens the teachings of Iqbal to the modern, Western reader. It will be essential reading for all those interested in Islamic intellectual history, the renewal of Islam in the modern world, and political theory of Islam's relationship to the West.
