The secret in dropshipping is that you never really have to hold the stock. Forget about mailing, storing loads of boxes, and having the trouble of keeping everything organized. Dropshipping takes care of your headaches, where the suppliers perform the muscle work. You are the channel to showcase their products. You sell them, earning your commission directly, and the supplier takes care of everything else (packaging, shipping). What about that? Ultimately, as dreamy as it may seem, dropshipping also requires the income through a business of your own. Drop shipping lets you sell products without actually having to purchase any products beforehand. In other words, you set up an online store, you list the products you want to sell, and when a customer buys something, you then place an order with the supplier who then ships it out to them. You then pocket the difference between what your customer paid and what it cost you to buy the item and get it shipped. You never need to buy stock and you never need to handle packaging and shipping - the supplier does all of that for you. Dropshipping has provided
