

Pst David O Oyedepo On The Book Walking In Dominion

Pentecostalism is the fastest growing stream of Christianity in the world. The real evidence for the significance of Pentecostalism lies in the actual churches they have built and the numbers they attract. In Africa, Pentecostalism has virtually become the representative face of Christianity with even historic mission denominations 'pentecostalising' their otherwise formal liturgical structures to survive. This work interprets key theological and missiological themes in African Pentecostalism by using material from the live experiences of the movement itself. An important source of primary material for instance is the popular books written by the leadership of contemporary Pentecostal churches and their media programs. An example of this is that on account of its motivational hermeneutics the Eagle, rather than the Dove, has become the preferred symbol of the Holy Spirit in this nascent dynamic movement. The interpretation of themes from contemporary African Pentecostalism in this book reveals much about how as a contemporary movement, it is reshaping African Christian spirituality in the 21st century.

This collection of essays in honour of Gerhardus Cornelis (Pippin) Oosthuizen, provides perspectives on current research in Religion and Southern Africa. It includes essays on Indigenous and Diaspora Religions and Religious Literature Hermeneutics.

Nigeria will be great again . . . For the set time to favor her has come! Read and spread the word! By the year 2019 (seven years from now,) God has promised the following: Curb corruption by changing the leadership landscape in Nigeria. Control poverty by transforming Nigeria into one of the truly rich nations of the world. Check terrorism by chasing the "Babylonians," for our sakes. But before we can key into these promises or get to the Promised Land, we must follow God's new blueprint for Nigeria. This blueprint was revealed by divine inspiration to Gbenga Richmond, an everyday youth who was looking forward to escaping to London in the year 2010 when the LORD arrested him. His story bears some semblance with that of biblical Jonah, Joseph, Gideon, and David. In this riveting narrative, he shares his frustrations, divine encounter, and the new blueprint for Nigeria.

What are the ecclesiological challenges and opportunities raised by technology? How have developments related to the COVID-19 global health crisis impacted churches, forcing a swift move to mediated and online worship? And how will this change the shape churches of theological and programmatic choices for years to come? Drawing together a diverse group of theologians and media scholars, this volume considers the key theological question churches and religious leaders need to engage with as they look towards long term strategies involving church life and technology.

This basic text is intended to trigger the interest of students as well as optimise the training and practice of Haematology in developing countries particularly in sub-Saharan Africa. It is aimed at improving the knowledge and skills of allied medical and medical students and other healthcare professionals involved in the management of haematological diseases, empowering them to offer the best possible quality services to their patients. This book is suitable not only for allied medical and medical students preparing for their examination in transfusion medicine but also for postgraduates preparing for examination in general medicine and haematology. The chapters have been presented in an annotated and easy to understand format.

This book reiterates the need for all stake holders involved in transfusion service delivery in Africa; from patients to the transfusion scientist, requesting clinicians, blood collection staff and distribution staff to work collaboratively to demonstrate judicious, world-class stewardship and use of the precious gifts of human blood as well as help people understand the limitations of blood supply. It is designed to emphasize the evidenced based best practices in transfusion medicine in the developed world to enable countries in Africa optimise their transfusion service delivery to their patients.

In 2005, I resigned as a full-time pastor of a church and relocated to Lagos, Nigeria, with one mission in mind: To observe and study the life of Bishop David Oyedepo, resident Bishop of Faith Tabernacle, Ogun State, Nigeria, the Largest Single Church in the world, according to Guinness Book of Records What I share with you in this book is a summary of what I have learned from the life and ministry of Bishop Dr. David O. Oyedepo in this last 10 years. It's been a long journey, but suffice it say that I have enjoyed every bit of it. Like all men of great influence, Bishop Oyedepo, has been analysed in the public domain and given different names by different people. However, I believe that no man actually rises to the top by making mistakes. People only rise to the top by doing the right things over a long period of time. In this book, I share with you the success habits and secrets of one of the greatest leaders of Charismatic revival on earth today...Bishop David Olaniyan Oyedepo May we all fulfill the purpose for which we are born.

Raising capital for business has been a major challenge for the teeming population of aspiring entrepreneurs all over the world. Lots of great business ideas remain as thoughts or plans and never materialize due to the challenge of raising capital. Everywhere you turn to you see someone giving up on a brilliant business idea or a new business suddenly folding up. Ask why, and the once-enthusiastic innovators will tell you with gloomy faces that they have no capital. They have no one to support them. The general consensus is that capital is money, and that it is scarce. But that is not exactly the case, as you will see from this book. 30 WAYS TO RAISE CAPITAL FOR YOUR BUSINESS reveals several ways to raise capital for your business that will inspire you to get started. It is time to move ahead with your business plan!

New media, including digital and social media, play a central role in producing and reproducing socio-cultural and religious practices. Its presence has not only resulted in changes to the ways in which religious beliefs are practiced, but has also altered the way religious meanings are expressed. How has new media technology informed and influenced religious engagement and participation? In what ways has new media technology enabled religious groups to practice and preach their religious beliefs to a broader audience? To what extent has the emergence of social media and social networking sites shaped religious discourses and religious practices? This volume offers a unique, Africa-centred perspective in response to these questions. While presenting new scholarly developments in the fields of media, religion and culture in Africa, this book also provides empirical and theoretical insights into the intersection between new media and religion.

Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity is a global phenomenon that comprises a quarter of the world's two billion Christians and is growing rapidly. This volume reveals that the primary appeal of pentecostalism worldwide is as a religion of healing. Contrary to popular stereotypes of flamboyant, fraudulent, anti-medical "faith healing" televangelists who preach a materialistic, "health and wealth" gospel, handle serpents, or sensationally "exorcize" demons, this book offers a more nuanced portrait. The collected essays illumine local variations, hybridities, and tensions in practices on six continents, and depict the extent of human suffering and powerlessness experienced by people everywhere and the attractiveness to many of a global religious movement that promises material relief by invoking spiritual resources. This is the first book of its kind. Achieving the twin goals of thick description and comparative analysis of global practices is best achieved by bringing area experts into conversation. This volume's distinguished, international team of contributors includes sociologists, anthropologists, historians, political scientists, theologians, and religious studies scholars from North America, Europe, and Africa. Read together, these essays set the agenda for a new program of scholarly inquiry into some of the largest forces of change at work in the world today—globalization, pentecostalism, and healing—each of which is extremely powerful in itself and which together are reshaping our world in vastly significant ways.

Secrets, not stories, make men. Everyone desires to be successful but there are secrets that make things achievable. Religion, History, and Politics in Nigeria is concerned with the problematic nature of religion and politics in Nigerian history. The book provides a lively and straightforward treatment of the relationship among religion, politics, and history in Nigeria, and how it affects public life today. By adopting various cultural, historical, political, and sociological perspectives, the text's contributors provide an excellent introduction to the volatile mix of religion and politics in Nigerian history, as well as a range of strategic choices open to religious adherents. The complexity of the relationship among religion, history, and politics is organized around four themes: indigenous values and the influence of Islam and Christianity, colonialism and religious transformation, the religious landscape of the post-colonial period, and the rise of evangelism and fundamentalism. The volume provides an insightful guide to contemporary history, contemporary religion, and contemporary politics, enabling the reader to reach informed and balanced judgments about the role of religion in Nigerian history and politics. This opens the door for serious examination and debate, and will be excellent for use by the general reader and in political science, history, and religion courses.

The book is on faith building and inspirational motivation.

How to Kill A Goliath; a challenging and inspiring book from Austin Romanus, has the capacity to transform you from being dissident over your personal problems and that of others to being audacious by the power of the Holy Spirit. The whole world is looking for a David to kill a certain Goliath, and you may be the one. You have never read anything like it before, where the story of David, the son of Jesse, and a man called Goliath from Gath was perfectly incorporated into the day to day affairs of the world. What Goliath represents in your personal, family, organizational, national, and international life and what David's killing of Goliath means and what God intended to teach the whole world through that experience is the reason why you must read this book. It is not just God's word for you and your family, but God's word to the whole world. Thus says the Lord, "Every goliath in your life, family, organization, nation, and in this world fall and die at the instance of the glorious power of Jesus Christ!"

Bishop David Oyedepo is understood and misunderstood by different people for different reasons. This book provides a better independent real-life account of the mystery behind the mastery of this global Christian gospel phenomenon and his pace-setting undeniable world-class superlative successes in the midst of deep multidimensional national poverty within his home country.

A Moving Faith captures the dynamic shift of Christianity to the South and portrays a global movement that promises prosperity, healing, empowerment, and gender equality by invoking neo-Pentecostal and Charismatic resources. It postulates that neither North America nor Europe is the current center of the Christian faith. The book provides a detailed overview of how migration of Christians from the South enriches the North, for instance, Pope Francis brings newness, freshness, and the vigor characteristic of the South. While describing Christianity's growth in the South, it suggests that, in fact, there is no center for this global faith. It explores this great move of Christianity by focusing on representative mega churches in South Korea, Brazil, Peru, Ghana, Nigeria, Australia, India, and the Philippines.

This book is all about: How to come out of the confusion of life. How to be delivered from human traditional lifestyle that is established on doubtful foundation (Proverbs 19:21). How to discover your destiny in life (Proverbs 29:18). How to walk with God to the top of life, from phase to phase. What it takes to fulfill your destiny in life, overcoming frustration and stagnation. The principles of true success (Joshua 1:8). How to live a life that is void of sorrow, depression, anxiety, and worry. How to live a meaningful life, despite the obstacles on your way to fulfillment. Understanding the power of relationship in the pursuit of destiny. Understanding the power of divine vision. I sincerely recommend this book to Christians and those that need to discover themselves in order to fulfill their destinies. Rev. Moses McKonteh

GOD'S TOUCH- Is full of inspiring and touching message on how the Touch of God is important in our life, and each morning, take a moment to think about - GOD'S Hand and Touch. Many people are waiting to feel happy and to be successful but the truth is without the touch of God you cannot achieve it. One touch of his favor can shift you into something greater, and put you more than 60-100 years ahead of where you thought you would be. Amen. In GOD'S TOUCH, Henry wants you to know that we need the Touch and Voice of God in everything we do, as Children of God - Don't think that the Lord is too weak to save you, or too deaf to hear your call for help (Isaiah 59;1) God is the Arm that hold you at your weakest, the Eye that will see you at your darkest and the Heart that will love you at your Worst. As you sit with God you are greeted with his Almighty outstretched hand in and out. In his touch are deep places of the earth, the heights of the hills are also his (Psalms 95;4). In his hand and touch he satisfy the desires of everything. Salvation, Blessing, Deliverance, Provision Wisdom, Change, Love, Financial-Breakthrough, Relationship, Leadership, Dominion, Promises, and more. Amen. I have lived and seen GOD'S hand and touch throughout my life time, and all was the best for me. For you have made me glad by what you have done I will sing for Joy at the work of your hand (Psalm 92;4) Love this Book, Read it, Pray, Believe it, Act, and you will see the Touch of God working in your Life.
